5. Community Development Director's Update Report: Briefing on current activities of staff.

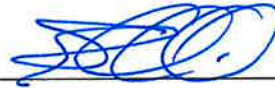

Marc Kurbansade updated the commission on current activities. He began by stating Shawn Poe will be leaving as our City Engineer and that this will be his last week with the city. He said the draft lighting ordinance from last December was being revived and will be going forward to City Council in November. He explained that the City Council will also be discussing single family dwelling garage enclosures. He said it currently is not allowed and depending on what direction City Council decides the Commission may see the item come before them. He said the City Council meetings will begin to be televised live and the Commission can watch them or feel free to attend the meetings to kind of get a feel of what is going on with that.

There being no further business, Scott Everett moved to adjourn. The meeting was adjourned at 7:09 p.m.
